

Check the packaging

- Check packaging before you leave the store, package should be clean and free of damage such as tears or holes
- There should be no signs of spillage or insect activity
- Any damage at the point of purchase should be reported to the retailer